RUSSIA MAY BE GREAT BATTLEFIELD

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Districts Against Combined Pro-German Elements—Anti-Bolsheviks Gaining.

London, Aug. 16.—Germany is planning an offensive against the Murman railway, in Russia, next month, in the hope of being able to establish a submarine base in the Pechenga district, according to indications today.

At the same time the Germans are endeavoring to seize the oil field from the Armenians in Transcaucasia and forcibly take over shipping on the Caspian sea.

Already British troops have arrived at Baku from Bagdad and are co-operating in the defence of the Baku oil district. They are operating under General Dudenkov.

There is a considerable force of British troops in northwestern Persia, but they are hampered by the lack of lines of communication.

British forces in Persia may be assisted by the fact that the premier of the country is pro-Allied. Three Allied movements southward from the Murman coast were planned.

The first detachment was to approach Obdarskaya, but Bolshevik troops, offered by Germans, hurried up to check the Allied advance.

Another Bolshevik force was sent to Onega to hold up the Allied advance southward from Archangel. So far no progress has been reported on part of the third Allied detachment, which was dispatched up the Dvina valley to take Khatlas junction.

General Alexieff, former chief of staff of the Russian army, and General Dudenkov, with their anti-Bolshevik forces, are encamped north of the Caspian and their power is steadily growing in the Ural mountain district.

Russia promises to become a gigantic battle field with the Allies advancing from three sides to drive out the Germans and to wipe out pro-German influence.

Already the campaign to save Russia for herself is under way with Allied troops on the Murman coast (in northern European Russia), at Vladivostok (in eastern Siberia), and at Baku in Transcaucasia (southern Russia).

The Allies are giving support to the Czech-Slavs and to the patriotic Russian forces that are hostile to the pro-German Bolsheviks.

It was recently reported that German troops were advancing on Petrograd, indicating that they would be used in an effort to prevent the southward march of the Allies from the Murman coast.

It is stated on good authority that there are already thousands of German officers and men in Petrograd and some estimates put the number at 100,000. This latter figure, however, evidently includes American Hungarians as well as Germans. Germany aspires to control the northern seas with her submarines, operating from a base on the coast of Russia.

According to the cablegram the Germans planned to establish a base in the region of Petchenga, but this may have been an error in transmission for Petchora. The Petchora is a river which flows into the Arctic Ocean east of Archangel. The numerous islands at its mouth afford excellent posts for a U-boat base.

U-BOAT SINKS BRAZILIAN SHIP

By Telegram to The Freeman.
An Atlantic Port, Aug. 16.—The 1,288 ton Brazilian motor ship Madragado was torpedoed and then sunk by shell fire from an enemy submarine south of this port yesterday, according to 22 members of the crew who reached here this noon. The survivors were rescued from lifeboats in which they left the motor ship, by the Norwegian steamship Pounten from Port Antonio, Jamaica.

The men were without provisions or adequate clothing and only the timely arrival of the Pounten saved their lives.

At Hearing on Man Power Bill Chief of Staff Makes Plain We Must Suffer Hardship to Attain Ends.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Aug. 16.—The United States is going to see this thing through, declared General March before the Military Affairs Committee today.

"Every one will have hardships. No man can go into war without hardships. The way we can win is to put the greatest number of men over there that we can."

The only way that Germany can be whipped is by going into this thing with the whole strength of the United States," he added.

"Then America has got to put enough men over there to whip Germany?" Senator Kirby asked.

"That is it in a nut shell."

General March revealed that there is little possibility of increasing the armies of either France or England now in the field. He said, however, that both France and England would be able to keep their armies up to their present strength.

"The Allies have a superiority in man power on the western front for the first time," March added, "because American troops are there in large numbers."

WAR REVENUE BILL ABOUT COMPLETE

Only Remains for House Committee to Decide Between McAdoo and Kitchen Plans—How it Will Hit Incomes.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Aug. 16.—After two months of work, the war revenue bill was practically completed by the house ways and means committee today. One lone important decision remained to be made—whether the committee shall accept the McAdoo profits taxation plan or cling to the Kitchen system. Upon this a score of minor decisions naturally hinge.

As the bill stands today it will bring in, the committee admits, half a billion dollars less than the $8,000,000,000 minimum insisted upon by Secretary McAdoo, according to Treasury Accounter McCoy. Dr. Adams, another treasury expert, however, asserted that no matter which profits plan is finally adopted, the return from the bill as now written must far exceed the required amount. To be on the safe side, the committee probably will accept the lower figure.

The bill is subject to change by both the house and the senate. However, by studying the authoritative sketch of the bill, the International News Service is able to present today an outline so that the average citizen may gain a fair idea of the amount of war expense he will be required to bear during the next twelve months.

Indications today were that the McAdoo profits plan will be adopted by the committee without radical change. Under this plan war profits would be taxed at 80 per cent with the average profits of the three years 1911, 1912 and 1913, taken as the basis of computing. Excess profit levies, however, would run from 10 to 60 per cent, with the exceptions remaining as at present. The Kitchen scheme would make these taxes 30 to 80 per cent. In addition there would be a normal profits tax of 18 per cent on undistributed profits and 12 per cent on profits distributed.

Treasury experts say the McAdoo scheme would yield $2,500,000,000 as against $2,500,000,000 to the Kitchen plan. The committee have offered compromises but the majority seemed to lean toward the McAdoo plan without change.

The bill as it now stands is the most stupendous piece of revenue legislation put before any legislature. It required the payment in taxes of $2,500,000,000 more than the total outstanding currency. To prevent the chaotic condition that would result if any attempt were made to pay all these taxes on one day or in one month all the installment system of payment will be provided in the bill. The treasury department wishes installment payment made mandatory. The committee had favored payment installments on March 15, June 15 and September 15, with a 1-1-1 per cent reduction for full payment.

A summing up that would be undertaken when the profit tax question is finally decided, the committee will turn to special taxes, such as those on breweries, oleomargarine plants, theatres, etc., and to liquor taxes to make up the balance. In an extremity, it is authoritatively stated, the committee may turn to the tariff to make up part of the deficit. It is certain that if any new import duties are levied they will be only on tea, coffee and cocoa.

The liquor taxes will be taken up last. They will be more than doubled—possibly tripled. The committee does not wish to attack them until the last minute, however, for any announcement of increased taxes would result in a rush to withdraw liquor from bond, and the government would lose half a billion dollars in a very few days.

The proposal for a one per cent sales tax to apply generally does not appear in the bill. This tax would have yielded $2,000,000,000, but would have been extremely difficult of collection. The bill will be made to yield the required amount without it.

The principal burdens will be borne, as the president desires, by excess profits, incomes and luxuries. The committee has decided that the normal tax on the first $4,000 of taxable income shall be five per cent with the existing exemptions still in force. The normal tax on incomes above $4,000 will be ten per cent with the following surtaxes:

2 per cent on proportion of income between $5,000 and $7,500.

4 per cent between $7,500 and $10,000.

10 per cent between $10,000 and $15,000.

VICTORY MENUS.

These menus, planned to conserve time and labor and money, to save the foods that are scarce and use those of which there is an abundance, are Victory Menus in more senses than one. They are prepared by the Department of Home Economics of the State College of Agriculture and are endorsed by the New York State Food Commission.

Saturday.

Breakfast—Shred peached, puffed rice with top milk, cereal muffins, jam, coffee.

Lunch or Supper—Potato salad, bread, fruit tapioca, cocoa.

Dinner—Baked beans, cold salad, steamed wheatless brown bread, coffee junket.

*May be omitted and still leave a balanced meal.

Milk for the children to drink at each meal.

Although the ready-to-eat cereals are more expensive than those that have to be prepared in the home, they are relished in hot weather occasionally because they are served cold. They are especially welcome to the housewife at this time, too, because they save her time and work over a stove during these hot mornings.

Fruit Tapioca.

Cook minute tapioca—about 1/4 cup—in 2 cups of fruit juice in a double boiler, until it is transparent. Add sweetening if necessary. Cool in sherbet glasses and serve with cream.

Steamed Brown Bread.

1 1/2 cups boiling water. 1 cup corn meal. 1/4 cup molasses. 1 cup sour milk. 2 cups barley flour. 2 teaspoons baking powder. 1 teaspoon soda. 1 teaspoon salt. 3/4 cup raisins.

Sift the cornmeal into the boiling water and cook it for 10 minutes. Cool it slightly and add the other ingredients. Turn the mixture into a greased mold and steam it for 2 hours. Dry it in the oven for 20 minutes.

Sunday.

Breakfast—Apple sauce, corn flakes, top milk, toast, jelly, coffee.

Dinner—Roast of veal, mashed potatoes, gravy, buttered beets, milk sherbet, fruit sauce.

Lunch or Supper—Indian bunny on toast, olives or pickles, molasses cake, sliced peaches with cream.

*May be omitted and still leave a balanced meal.

Milk for the children to drink at each meal.

Milk sherbet is a wholesome way of using milk in summer. While this dessert has a much higher food value than ordinary fruit juice sherbet, it is equally pleasing to the palate.

Molasses Cake.

1/2 cup fat. 1 1/2 cups molasses. 1 cup boiling water. 1/2 teaspoon salt. 1 teaspoon soda. 1 teaspoon ginger. 1 cup corn flour. 1 cup buckwheat flour. 2 eggs.

Cream the fat, and add the molasses and the boiling water. Add the sifted dry ingredients to the first mixture. Add the eggs last. Bake the cake in a loaf or in a shallow pan in a moderate oven.

Indian Bunny.

1/2 cup cornmeal. 2 teaspoons salt. 1/2 cup cold water. 1 1/2 cups hot water. 2 tablespoons fat. 1/2 pound cheese, dash of cayenne.

Wet the cornmeal with the cold water, add it carefully to the hot water and cook it over direct heat until it thickens, stirring it constantly. Place in over hot water, and steam it for 4 hours. Before serving it, add the cheese, grated or cut in small pieces, and the fat. When the cheese melts, serve the bunny on crisp toast.

Recipes for any of the dishes in these menus which cannot be found in cook books may be had by writing to the Department of Home Economics, State College of Agriculture, Ithaca, N. Y.

COUNTY FAIR NEWS.

Fastest Harness Horse Will Try for New Track Record.

As the date for the opening of the 30th annual Ulster county fair draws near it becomes more and more evident that it is going to be about the best in its history.

Entries in all lines are pouring into the secretary's office. The cattle exhibit is to be especially fine, with full lines of registered Guernseys, Shorthorns, Ayrshires, Holsteins and Jerseys, as well as a large number of grade cattle and steers and oxen. Among the large cattle exhibitors are Saugerties Farms, High Point Springs Farm, Shantituck Farm, Robert Many, Herbert Brooks, Chester Young and others. As usual the poultry exhibit will be especially good.

There is a great deal of enthusiasm being shown in the Ulster county breeding match to be held on the first day of the fair. Every town in the county will be represented in this contest and the winner will represent Ulster county at the New York state fair. It will be well worth bearing and seeing. All school children will be admitted to the fair free on that day.

The midway will be well filled with games, shows and all those things which go to make up a midway. Of course, the merry-go-round and ocean wave will be there. Mrs. C. H. Horton, the well known sculptor, will again be at the fair.

The main building will be well filled with exhibitors as it always is. Among the worth while things to be found there will be an exhibit by the state health department, the Jewish Agricultural Society and the County Conservation Department in charge of Miss Lillian Stuart, Winter's Sons, W. H. Rider, Gregory & Co., L. B. Van Wageningen Co., Park & Follard, Herman Lertae, Fred McGroo and J. A. Brown will have large exhibits of merchandise.

The racing promises to be fine on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The fastest harness horse in the world, Directum 1, owned by S. S. Shurtler of Ellenville, will go against the track record on Thursday and will be shown each day of the fair. This alone is worth a trip to the fair. This is the only fair in New York state where Directum 1 will be shown this year.

The fair office is this year located in the Hunt Memorial Building in the office of Potter & Levensberry, where the secretary, R. W. Thompson, may be found at any time before the fair. During the fair his office is in the grand stand.

Label Seed Packages.

Of course it is a good thing to save garden seed. But carefully saved seed should be well labeled and stored to save confusion next spring. Cloth bags are the best containers for large seed and well sealed envelopes are satisfactory for smaller kinds. Every envelope or container should show the kind and varieties of seed the date including month and year when harvested and the place where grown.

Panama's Great Lake.

Catan lake, at the summit of the hill climbed by the Panama canal, is the most important feature of the great waterway and one of the largest artificial bodies of water in the world. This basin, dry land before the canal was built, extends two-thirds of the distance between the oceans and in it are stored the dangerous floods of the Chagres river.

A LIVELY TIME ON UNION STREET

John B. Alliger's Automobile mysteriously Catches Fire in the Garage—Neighbors Observe Smoke and Send in Call to Fire Department.

John B. Alliger, treasurer of the Ulster County Savings Institution, and his son-in-law, Druggist Henry C. Connolly, are numbered among the most careful men around automobiles in Kingston. Thursday evening they went out for a short spin in Mr. Alliger's car, and returned home about 9 o'clock that evening and placed the car in the garage on West Union street, in the rear of Mr. Alliger's residence on Abel street. At that time everything was apparently all right.

This morning before Mr. Alliger left for uptown he rolled out his ash barrel past the garage. There was no sign of anything unusual at that time. About half an hour later while Mrs. Connolly, who resides across the street from the garage, noticed smoke coming from the garage and called the attention of Police Commissioner Peter P. Zeeh to it.

Commissioner Zeeh ran across the street and broke open the back door of the garage and found it filled with smoke. Dropping to his hands and knees he crawled to the front door of the garage and threw it open when he was assisted in rolling the burning auto out of the garage by Dr. J. A. Huhne, Mr. Carney and Kenneth Glass, who is employed by Mr. Zeeh in his bottling works across the street from the garage.

In the meantime Mrs. Zeeh sent in a still alarm to Cornell House which was promptly answered. The automobile was badly damaged by fire but the loss is covered by insurance.

The only way to account for the fire is that there must have been a short circuit in the battery. The garage was not damaged, only the car being burned.

UNDERNEATH THE CITY HALL DOME

"Opportunity never travels with a drum corps, and that is why, when it passes us by, and knocks at the other man's door, we sit and sigh, 'ain't he the lucky guy,' and then just keep on dreaming as before," declared the City Hall Poet this morning.

"Rocky rhythm, but the sentiment rings true just the same," butted in the City Hall Oracle.

"And speaking of opportunity," said the City Hall Oracle, following a pause, "a young man called at police headquarters this morning looking for a job. He said he wanted work, and one of the officers called his attention to the fact that up the street a block or so was a job awaiting a good man."

"It is only a five minute walk," remarked the officer.

"Take me up in the car will you?" asked the applicant for work.

It is hardly necessary to state that he was informed that the walking was good.

And speaking of work it should not be forgotten that every able bodied man in Kingston has a chance to secure a job at good wages. In fact, the demand for men is such that the city itself has been unable to get as many men as it needed. For that reason alone the water department has done no extension work this year, as men could receive higher pay elsewhere and went elsewhere for a job.

The work on building the big new 20 inch water main into Kingston is at a standstill and no work will be done this year. About a mile and a half of the six and a half miles of the job has been completed, and all the water board is doing this year is to keep up the regular repair work about town for lack of men.

Thursday evening about 3 o'clock a child, 2 years old, sitting on its mother's lap, and riding on an uptown bound Colonial car, in charge of Conductor Longtree and Motorman Winchell, was hit in the eye with a stone while passing Foxhall avenue.

A crowd of boys, one of whom threw the stone, scattered quickly, and the thrower of the stone was not located.

The members of the police force are enjoying themselves in their spare time with bathing at Bath Beach. Officer James V. Connolly reminds the many bathers of their idea of Samson, the strong man mentioned in the book which everyone should read if they don't, when they see him on the beach in his bathing costume.

There were no cases in police court today.

ARE PATRIOTIC

And It Was First Town in Ulster County Where Every Physician Enrolled for Medical Service—Canvass of County Completed.

The Ulster county medical committee, the members of which are Drs. E. E. Norwood, A. A. Stern, Mark O'Meara and E. F. Sibley of Kingston, and C. V. Hasbrouck of Rosendale, has completed its work of canvassing Ulster county, and have seen every physician in the county.

To Saugerties goes the credit of being the first town in the county to have all its physicians enroll for service.

There are two divisions in which the medical men are asked to enroll the first is the Medical Reserve Corps and takes in all medical men eligible for the regular army, while the second is the Volunteer Medical Corps. Those eligible to the second are those who are not fit physically for active service in the army, those having two or more dependents, those needed by institutions or communities, and those over 55 years of age.

This Volunteer Medical corps has been changed also to include not only men who were not eligible for service but all legally qualified physicians in the county, including women, who have not received commissions.

President Wilson favors the doctors' reserve corps, and approves of the plan to enroll the entire profession in corps for national service. All physicians under 55 years are subject to call to military forces.

Dr. Franklin Martin of the advisory commission, Council of National Defense states, "This is a method of recording all physicians who are not yet in service and classifying them so that their services when required will be utilized. It is a method by which every physician not in uniform will be entitled to wear insignia which will indicate his willingness to serve his government."

LONG DELAYED ANSWER.

Mayor Receives Reply to Fourth of July Invitation.

Mayor Canfield has received the following letter from three members of the American Expeditionary Forces:

Somewhere in France July 27, 1918

Honorable Palmer Canfield,

Mayor of the City of Kingston.

Dear Sir:

In appreciation of your interest in our behalf, we forward you these few lines in answer to your letter sent to A. E. Cahill, addressed to Laurel, Md., but reaching him in France, requesting our presence at home on "Independence Day." We regret that we were not in a position to be with you and the people of the Dear Old "Colonial City" on that day, but nevertheless, although many miles separated us we were with you in the thoughts and spirit and feel that our location on that date, rendered us in a position to participate in patriotic exercises that helped bring nearer the end of Kaiserism.

Again thanking you, and stating that from indications and conditions over here the folks at home may maintain a strong belief that a presentiment of the boys will dish home on Christmas, and that we will all be with you next Fourth (4th) of July.

With best wishes and fondest regards to all at home, we remain,

Respectfully yours,

MAURICE D. POWERS,

JOHN C. MAHONEY,

ALEXANDER E. CAHILL,

Catching Turtles.

A curious mode of catching turtle is practiced in the West Indies. It consists in attaching a ring and a line to the tail of a species of suckerfish known as the remora. The live fish is then thrown overboard, and immediately attaches for the first time in its life to which it attaches itself very firmly by means of a sucking apparatus arranged on the top of the head. Once attached to the turtle, so firm is its grip that the fishermen on directing the line bring home both turtle and the sucker.

WARNED NOT TO PROFITEER

Farm Equipment Held to Get High Prices Will be Regarded as Hoarding—Replace Prices in Some Cases Profiteering.

The government has sent out a warning against profiteering in farm equipments.

Selling goods on a replace value in certain cases will be considered profiteering, according to the statement that comes from the office of the farm equipment control of the United States department of agriculture, which administers the licensing of the farm equipment industry under the food control act.

Farm equipment held, contracted for or arranged for by any manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer or other dealer in excess of reasonable requirements of his business for use or sale by him in a reasonable time, is considered hoarding under the meaning of the federal act controlling the disposition of food. Each particular case of alleged violation will be dealt with according to its merits.

In selling at replacement values, it would be a violation of this act if goods were sold when values are fixed on the basis of rising prices and not replaced on the basis of falling prices in case such a change should occur.

There is a paragraph which is interpreted as follows:

A manufacturer or dealer is held to be a profiteer if he chooses to sell farm equipment at prices ruling higher than the prices at which he bought the machinery, if he does not replace the machinery for his trade under the high prices.

The circular can be seen posted in the Central post office.

GOOD WHEAT SEED.

Good Seed of Right Variety Will Add Greatly to 1919 Crop.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 16.—Many bushels can be added to the 1919 Liberty wheat harvest, the farmers can read added profits from increased yields with no more than the usual labor or expense if the variety of seed sown this fall is pure and is well adapted to the locality, say specialists to the United States Department of Agriculture. The seed should be free from noxious weed seeds and not infested by destructive plant disease. It should be clean, plump and heavy. If there is doubt about what variety produces the best yields in a given locality, the grower should consult his county agent, state agricultural college or write to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Home grown wheat should be used for seed wherever possible. The best seed to get is that of an adapted variety which has been grown continuously in the locality for some time, provided it is pure. The idea that varieties "run out" if grown long in one section is only an expression for the fact that they are allowed to become mixed and weedy and disease-infected. Changing the kind of wheat grown should be done only for the purpose of getting a proved better variety. It is often desirable to do this, provided it is demonstrated beyond question that the new variety is better for that locality.

So-called "new" varieties, extravagantly advertised at fancy prices, should be disregarded completely.

SOLDIERS' ALLOWANCE CHECKS

Will be Smaller This Month but Balance Will Come.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Thousands of New York state residents who receive allotment and allowance checks from the government for men in service with the colors will receive checks this month smaller than usual, but they are urged not to worry about it as the rest of their allowance or allotment will come to them from another department.

This radical change in the method of handling allotments and family allowances is expected to speed up the delivery of government checks to dependents of soldiers and sailors.

The new regulations provide that every enlisted man in military or naval service, regardless of rank or pay, must make the same compulsory allotment to his wife and children, fifteen a month. To this allotment the government will add a monthly allowance ranging from five dollars a month for a motherless child and fifteen dollars for a wife without children, up to a maximum of fifty dollars.

In addition, the enlisted man, if he desires government allowances for his dependent parents, grandparents, grandchildren, brothers and sisters, may make voluntary allotments to them—fixed by the new amendments at $5 a month, where allotment is made to a wife and children, and $15 where no such allotment is made.

Heretofore allotments were on a sliding scale and varied accordingly to the soldier's pay or the number and personnel of his family.

The new system, which was put into effect with the approval of the war and navy departments, will simplify the administration of allotments and allowances, both by the bureau of war-risk insurance and in the field. Henceforth the bureau of war-risk insurance will handle allotments of only two amounts, $15 or $20. The excess allotments and allotments to persons not entitled to allowances, will be handled by the war department, navy department, marine corps and corps guard.

Under the new amendments a father through adoption and mother through adoption will be considered the same as a natural father and mother and will have the same rights to allotments and allowances. Approximately 3,500,000 checks of war-risk insurance, checks are being mailed at the rate of more than 10,000 a day.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Tonight in the Association swimming pool will be held an aquatic meet for the members of the junior department, including the employed "boys" class. Quite an amount of interest has been shown in preparation for this event by the boys. The meet will be supervised by the physical director, Mr. Billinger.

The events consist of races in the crawl stroke, breast stroke, swimming on the back, and a free style race of 100 yards. About twenty entries have been received. These have been divided into two classes, boys over and boys under ninety pounds.

As an incentive to the boys' best efforts, ribbons are to be given in each event for first, second and third places. All men and boys of the city are invited to be present at the pool at 7:30 to urge on their comrades.

Preparations are already being made for the winter activities in the gym. The lockers have all been cleaned and the gym floor has been refinished and new painted. Young men set in a gym class this winter and be in the fun. You will benefit, specially and physically.

Try bowling for what ails you. The Association alleys will soon be open and strikes and spares will be the aim of every man who can even attempt to bowl.

Ford Car Stolen.

C. F. Fowler of Walden left his Ford runabout, 1918 model, in front of the shed in the rear of his home Thursday night and when he came out this morning a little later the Ford had disappeared. The license number is 263413. The police department here was notified of the theft. Mr. Fowler is a brother of J. M. Fowler, the attorney of this city.

Woman Station Master.

Savannah, Ga., Aug. 15.—This city has its first woman railroad station keeper. Miss Stella Trask is now on duty at the Union passenger station in that capacity, releasing a man from the army. Instead of the customary blue uniform and brass buttons she wears a plain blue traveling suit with the usual official white cap.

Not Apprehending.

Moline, Ill., Aug. 15.—When her husband complained that cakes made with peanut flour had a peculiar taste, Mrs. Edith Rogers took a handful of the flour from the package to examine it. She found two human hairs in it. Food authorities and police were immediately notified and an investigation started.

Appointed a Notary.

Barth E. Brander has been appointed a notary public by the governor.

FARMERETTE TRANSPORT

Is Chief Problem Confronting New Laborers.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 15.—One of the chief problems that will come up for discussion and solution at the up-state conference of the New York State Woman's Land Army to be held here August 20-21 is that of transporting the farmerettes from their camps to farms where they are employed for day labor.

The army has 24 camps located in different parts of the state, housing about 1,000 girls and it works on the farms in the neighborhood, performing the tasks which formerly fell to the lot of the "farm hands." One of the rules of the army is that these girls shall work in squads and shall live in one camp under care and supervision of a matron. In order to do this they must travel back and forth to their work each day. This necessitates one or several automobiles in each camp.

Each camp has its own girl chaufffeur who is responsible for getting the workers to their "jobs." She is obliged to deliver the farmerettes at their destinations so they can be ready for work at 7 o'clock.

The units supply their own car, gasoline and chauffeur at great expense. In some instances when the farm is a long distance from the camp they collect a fee for transportation from the farmer unless he is willing to supply a truck and carry the girls back and forth himself.

The increasing cost of gasoline and repairs and the difficulty of getting trucks or autos forms one of the problems of camp maintenance. Managers of the Land Army say it is one of the overhead items that must be taken care of before the camps are placed on a self-sustaining basis. They expect the membership drive which is to follow the up-state conference to help raise money to supply each camp with transportation facilities. The farmerettes they say have saved the state thousands of dollars worth of crops. When the public realizes this there is no doubt it will rally to their support.

Use Furs as Money.

The Lovett islands, which lie in the Pacific to the east of Australia, are famous for their fur money. The fur, which is taken from behind the ears of the so-called "flying fox," is really a large fruit eating bat is woven into cords of various lengths, and these constitute the ordinary currency of the islanders.

Fate of the Cliff Dwellers.

It seems that there can be no doubt that the cliff dwellers were exterminated by their more savage and warlike neighbors, the men being killed and the women being adopted into the tribe of the conquerors, though in some cases migrations may have been necessary as a result of drought or pressure from outside tribes.

To Be Pitched Only in the Morning.
Many years ago, when Connie Mack was the Milwaukee catcher and manager, the club opened the season with several sore-arm veteran pitchers. There was one youngster with the club who did not complain of this trouble, so they sent him to the slab. Milwaukee was beaten something like 16 to 4. The kid pitcher was downcast. "The umpire didn't give me any the best of it," he said by way of an allud.

"No," replied Joe Cantillon, who had overheard the remark: "Neither did the opposing batters give you any the best of it."

The kid walked off in a huff. Connie Mack turned to Cantillon. "I'll say this for the boy," he said. "I've worked out with him every morning for the last two weeks, and he looked mighty good."

Cantillon pulled a schedule out of his pocket and glanced over it rapidly. "The next morning game is on Decoration day, Connie," he remarked. "Save the kid pitcher for then."

When a Prisoner Is Exchanged.
Iran Roessler, captured by the Germans and later exchanged, says in the Farm and Fireside: "Then I lay down, not to sleep but to think. I thought of the day when I enlisted in Canada, of leaving home, the training camps, the trip overseas to England, the training in England, going across the channel to Flanders, the terrible fighting at Ypres, of the many friends who fell on that bloody battlefield, how I was wounded and captured, the inhuman treatment I received at the hands of the German surgeons, who had four Jewish Germans hold me down while they cut away bones out of my wrist and amputated my middle finger at the second joint when I was wounded in the arm from a gas shell, the kicks and the pain from prison guards and the terrible stuff the Germans called food in the prison camps."

PUBLIC ROADS

WAR DEVELOPING OUR ROADS

One of Most Important Benefits Will Be Distribution of Farm Products by Motors.

"One of the most important benefits of the war to America is going to be the development of transportation of farm products to markets by means of motor trucks," remarked R. C. Watts of St. Louis, highway engineer, while in Washington the other day. "If anyone had told us five years ago that motor vehicles would be utilized for moving products and machinery as they have been used in the last twelve months, he would have been thought crazy, yet Charles Schwab, the new head of the steel corporation, is giving a practical demonstration of how to do things by transferring a large part of his office equipment to Philadelphia by motor trucks. The highways of the country have been taken over by the people for hauling goods which could not be hauled during the period of congestion by the railroads. In the whole history of transportation the highway has been the patient drudge, but suddenly the motor truck has come to the front and supplied for the roads what the steam engines supply for the railways, and this has brought about many new conditions, which will develop into many other new and marvellous results."

"To my mind, the most important will be the distribution of farm products by means of motor vehicles. We know that the farmers have always relied upon the railroads for the movement of their products long distances."

Leading Eggs Into Motor Trucks.

For the short haul, of course, they utilized the wagon and in later years the automobile. But for hauling any great quantity of products they relied entirely on the railroads. The employment of the motor truck has demonstrated its practicality, and hereafter when things become normal we shall see thousands of great motor vehicles hauling farm products to market. It is going to result, moreover, in a wonderful improvement of the roads all through this country."

INCREASED VALUE OF FARMS

Motorcar Opens Every Acre of Ground and Brings It Nearer Center of Population.

The railroad opened up a few roads, but the motorcar opens every acre of ground and brings it nearer the centers of population. The products—the motorcar increased these values still more by marketing them quicker. While the telephone put the farm in communication with the city, the motorcar does that and more—it puts the farmer and his family in physical and mental communication with the markets and the social life of the city.

SOLUTION OF ROAD PROBLEM

Hard-Surfaced Highway Is Best Wherever Traffic Will Warrant Necessary Expense.

Roads must be built to suit the environment—both physical and financial. Earth roads are the only ones some communities can afford, while other sections may require gravel or broken stone surfaces. But wherever the traffic will warrant the expense, an economically designed and carefully constructed hard-surfaced highway is the only satisfactory solution of the road problem.

Plan Comprehensive.
To be efficiently done, road and street building must be planned comprehensively and under the careful direction of one whose knowledge is based on both years of careful thought and practical experience.

Highways in Mexico.
The government of Mexico has committed itself to the policy of constructing at the earliest possible time a system of modern highways that shall connect all the principal cities and parts of the country.

SAYS BERLIN IS FORTIFIED

Vast Defense Work Has Been Built, According to Statement Made by Swede.

Monster guns, hidden in pits 40 and 50 feet deep, and 125 to 150 feet apart, form a labyrinth of defenses around Berlin, according to John Erickson, a native of Sweden. For five years, beginning with 1907, Erickson says he worked on the outer defenses of Berlin, and prior to that time worked for the Motta gun works of Sweden, turning out heavy ordnance for Germany. Guns surrounding Berlin, according to Erickson, range from 22 to 42 inches in diameter. Many are of the larger type. Some are over 200 feet long. Their foundation is set in seven feet of solid granite, sunk in the bottom of the pits in which the guns are hidden, surrounding the city. Two circles of these guns surround Berlin. One is seven miles from the city's outskirts—the other is 11. A screen roof is now laid over these guns. A layer of two feet of dirt covers the top. Grass, trees and even the season's crops are planted over them. Electricity controls the huge guns, Erickson says. When the guns are needed the roof may easily be thrown off and the guns hoisted to position.

Conan Doyle as a Doctor.
Asked recently why he gave up the practice of medicine, Sir Conan Doyle said the work was too hard, and to prove it he went on to tell of his first case, says an exchange.

Called in the middle of a bitter winter's night to a house three miles away, where a child was reported to be seriously ill, the creator of "Sherlock Holmes" tramped through the rain and sleet only to find the place in darkness, and bolted and barred into the bargain.

He knocked and rang again and again. No answer! At last a head stuck itself gingerly out of a third-story window.

"Be you Dr. Doyle?" it said. "Yes," said Doyle. "Let me in."

"Oh, no need to come in now," said the man. "The child's all right; sleeping quite peacefully."

Doyle buttoned his coat and started off homeward. But suddenly the window was raised again and the same voice cried: "Doctor! I say, doctor!"

He hurried back, thinking that the child had suddenly taken a turn for the worse.

"Well, what do you want?" he asked. The voice made answer: "Ye won't charge nothing for this visit, will ye?"

Recognized Only One.
The conversation in the lobby of a Washington hotel turned to the subject of signs when the following story was contributed by Representative Edward H. Watson of New Hampshire:

An esteemed party named Pat established a livery stable in a rural New England town, and wishing an appropriate sign, he had one painted that pictured a man riding a mule. Just after the sign was put up Pat's friend, Mike, rambled along.

"O' sec," pleasantly remarked Mike, gazing at the new creation, "that yez have put up a fine sign."

"Yes," responded Pat, with some show of pride. "That do yez think ar it?"

"Shure, an' O' loike it," replied Mike, with an expansive smile. "But who is the mon that's on yez back?"—Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

Face Task With Confidence.
Take it for granted that whatever work is given you to do, you can do. Nothing undermines efficiency like the feeling of apprehension regarding your task. Whether you are a business worker, or a student, or find your occupation about the house, train yourself to think of it always with cheerfulness and confidence.—Girl's Companion.

Companies Everywhere Find Rate Increases Necessary

THIS newspaper has carried the announcement that this company is obliged to raise its rates on account of the tremendous increase in operating expenses.

We regret that this step was found necessary, but, as we stated, no other course was open to us. The situation confronting us here in Kingston was not unlike that before practically every other public utility in the country.

Everywhere Central Stations are being compelled to face conditions undreamed of a few years ago—and everywhere there is only one practical solution—an increase in rates.

462 Last Year

Last year 462 applications for increased utility rates were made to various local and state commissions in the United States and of these 401, or 86 per cent, were favorably acted upon. These figures prove beyond question that public bodies realize how critical is the public utility situation, and how just is their plea for relief in the present emergency.

At the present time between 200 and 300 rate increases per month are being allowed public utilities in the United States and Canada. We could publish these figures for you if we thought it were necessary. But we believe that when you consider how the cost of everything you buy for your own home, from soap to shoes and food, has multiplied in price, you will realize that we, too, have been compelled to meet a similar, or even greater, advance in our own operating expense. Everywhere citizens are being asked to meet the rapid being asked to meet the numerous advances in new rates for gas with for the cost of coal, labor, bearance. We ask you to accept them in the same spirit here at home.

Bennett's Premonition.
There's no end of merry anecdotes of the whimsicalities of the late James Gordon Bennett, editor of the New York Herald. Once he directed that a reporter be sent every night to a menagerie, with instructions to watch the lion who put his head between the lion's jaws until the lion bit it off. The reporter covered his assignment for more than 100 performances without having anything to report. Finally, he took a night off. That night the lion took a bite. —Boston Globe.

Marvelous Grand Canyon.
Those who have lived with, rather than glanced at, the Grand Canyon become increasingly moved by its glories. It has inspired more literature and art than all the other scenic places of America combined. It is the center of a steadily increasing pilgrimage of painters. It perhaps may be said that the Grand Canyon and the region of which it is the climax inspire the highest as well as certainly the most extensive expression of landscape art in America today.

Bell Note Bird.
A remarkable piping bird is known as the bell-bird. Four species are known of which two are pure, glossy white; one is brownish with a white head and neck, and one is white with black wings. Its call is like the note, clear and melodious, of a beautiful bell. Sometimes it utters only one note, then rests. When several of these birds call and answer, the effect is beautiful. The bell-bird, which belongs to the chatter family, are found in Central America south to Brazil.

Bryce of the Marines Prefers Home to the Dugouts.

The following is the copy of a letter received by J. D. Craig of 58 Van Buren street, this city, from Edward J. Bryce who, as told in Thursday evening's Freeman, has been wounded at the front in France:

le France, May 11, 1918.

Friend Dan:

I suppose you think that I have forgotten you when I have not written before this, but really I have been so busy I hardly had time to think of my friends.

I received a letter from Leo Coffey saying that he showed you my picture and that you had made a duplicate for Dady. I suppose you have all kinds of jobs now. Believe me, I would like to be back in the cars instead of living in dug-outs. How is "old Tom"? I suppose he has his "yellow kids" every night the same as usual. Tell him to give by regards to all my friends up in the ward. (That is the Fourth ward, Newburgh, N. Y.)

The weather is very bad over here; it rains every day due to the heavy cannonading.

Believe me, I will be glad when I can get back so as I can get a couple of "Yellow Kids" and take a trip up to the "Travelers."

Tell Dady working for him is a hundred times better than soldiering these days.

Well as I have no more to say at present, I must conclude for now. Give my regards to Cap. Jim and Martin Bergen.

Hoping to receive a quick reply, I remain as before,

Your friend,

EDW. J. BRYCE.

OUR SAVED FOOD
FED THE ALLIES

Food Administrator Writes President America Conserved 141,000,000 Bushels of Wheat.

CREDIT DUE TO WOMEN.

Meat and Fat Shipments Increased by 844,600,000 Pounds.

Conservation measures applied by the American people enabled the United States to ship to the Allied peoples and to our own forces overseas 141,000,000 bushels of wheat and 844,600,000 pounds of meat during the past year, valued in all at $1,400,000,000.

This was accomplished in the face of a serious food shortage in this country, bespeaking the wholeheartedness and patriotism with which the American people have met the food crisis abroad.

Food Administrator Hoover, in a letter to President Wilson, explains how the situation was met. The voluntary conservation program fostered by the Food Administration enabled the piling up of the millions of bushels of wheat during 1917-18 and the shipment of meat during 1917-18.

The total value of all food shipments to Allied destinations amounted to $1,400,000,000, all this food being bought through or in collaboration with the Food Administration. These figures are all based on official reports and represent food exports for the harvest year that closed June 30, 1918.

The shipments of meats and fats (including meat products, dairy products, vegetable oils, etc.) to Allied destinations were as follows:

Fiscal year 1916-17... 2,166,500,000 lbs.

Fiscal year 1917-18... 8,011,100,000 lbs.

Increase... 844,600,000 lbs.

Our slaughterhouse animals at the beginning of the last fiscal year were not appreciably larger than the year before and particularly in hogs; they were probably less. The increase in shipments is due to conservation and the extra weight of animals added by our farmers.

The full effect of these efforts began to bear their best results in the last half of the fiscal year, when the exports to the Allies were 2,133,100,000 pounds, as against 1,268,500,000 pounds in the same period of the year before. This compares with an average of 800,000,000 pounds of total exports for the same half years in the three-year pre-war period.

In cereals and cereal products reduced to terms of cereal bushels our shipments to Allied destinations have been:

Fiscal year 1916-17... 259,900,000 bushels

Fiscal year 1917-18... 340,800,000 bushels

Increase... 80,900,000 bushels

Of these cereals our shipments of the prime breadstuffs in the fiscal year 1917-18 to Allied destinations were:

Wheat 181,000,000 bushels and of rye 13,900,000 bushels, a total of 144,900,000 bushels.

The exports to Allied destinations during the fiscal year 1916-17 were:

Wheat 135,100,000 bushels and rye 2,900,000 bushels, a total of 138,000,000 bushels.

In addition some 10,000,000 bushels of 1917 wheat are now in port for Allied destinations or en route thereto. The total shipments to Allied countries from our last harvest of wheat will be therefore, about 141,000,000 bushels, or a total of 154,000,000 bushels of prime breadstuffs.

In addition to this we have shipped some 16,000,000 bushels to neutrals dependent upon us, and we have received some imports from other quarters.

"This accomplishment of our people in this matter stands out even more clearly if we bear in mind that we had available in the fiscal year 1916-17 from net carry-over and as surplus over our normal consumption about 200,000,000 bushels of wheat which we were able to export that year without trenching on our home loaf," Mr. Hoover said. "This last year, however, owing to the large failure of the 1917 wheat crop, we had available from net carry-over and production and imports only just about our normal consumption. Therefore our wheat shipments to Allied destinations represent approximately savings from our own wheat bread."

"These figures, however, do not fully convey the volume of the effort and sacrifice made during the past year by the whole American people. Despite the magnificent effort of our agricultural population in planting a much increased acreage in 1917, not only was there a very large failure in wheat, but also the corn failed to mature properly, and our corn is our dominant crop."

"I am sure," Mr. Hoover wrote in concluding his report, "that all the millions of our people, agricultural as well as urban, who have contributed to these results should feel a very definite satisfaction that in a year of universal food shortages in the northern hemisphere all of those people joined together against Germany have come through into sight of the coming harvest not only with wealth and strength fully maintained, but with only temporary periods of hardship."

"It is difficult to distinguish between various sections of our people—the homes, public eating places, food traders, urban or agricultural populations—in assessing credit for these results, but no one will deny the dominant part of the American women."

70 per cent, between $1,000,000 and $5,000,000.
75 percent on all exceeding $5,000,000.

The scale on the inheritance taxes agreed upon will cover a heavy yield, but Representative Ramey, ranking Democrat on the committee announced today that he will make a fight on the floor to have the rate on estates of over $1,000,000 radically increased. There is an original exemption of $50,000, and the taxes thereafter follow:

Six per cent on proportion on inheritance between $50,000 and $150,000.

Nine per cent between $150,000 and $250,000.

Twelve per cent between $250,000 and $500,000.

Fifteen per cent between $500,000 and $1,000,000.

Eighteen per cent between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000.

Twenty-one per cent between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000.

Twenty-four per cent between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000.

Twenty-seven per cent between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000.

Thirty per cent between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000.

Thirty-five per cent between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000.

Forty per cent above $15,000,000.

These estate taxes may seriously interfere with similar state taxes, and probably will necessitate revision of state laws so that the federal tax may be taken out before the state tax is calculated.

Luxuries are recognized in the bill as being of two sorts, one by its nature such as electric fans, jewelry, photographs, thermos bottles, tapestries, pianos, etc., and the other by its cost. The out and out luxuries are taxed at the rate of 10 per cent.

On platinum jewelry there is an additional 10 per cent and each sale must be registered. Or cosmetics there is a one cent tax for each ten cents of the selling price or fraction thereof.

Men's and women's suits and coats in excess of $50.

Women's hats $25.

Men's hats $5 and caps $2.

Men's and women's shoes $10.

The following are the federal license taxes to be assessed against auto owners.

Less than 25 horsepower, $10.

23 to 40 horsepower, $20.

31 to 40 horsepower, $30.

Over 40 horsepower, $50.

In addition the owner of a gas car must pay a two cent tax on every gallon of gasoline. Electric cars pay $5 per horsepower and 50 cents for each 100 pounds of weight. Motorcycles pay a flat $5 license tax.

A license tax of $10 must be paid for each retail establishment doing a business of more than $2,000 a year and a similar tax applies against professional men.

Wholesale businesses in excess of $200,000 a year must pay $25.

The tobacco taxes are practically double the present rates. They follow:

Cigars, weight three pounds per 1,000, $2 a thousand.

ON YOUR HONOR.

Food Administration Asks People to Use Two Pounds Monthly.

The Allies need sugar.

The time has come for us to face the fact that we do not need sugar.

Food experts tell all us that the body does not require even such sweets as honey and syrups.

But if we feel that we must have something sweet once in a while, we have at our command an abundance of molasses, syrups, sorghum, honey and maple sugar, as well as dried and fresh fruits.

The Allies are not asking for very much sugar. Italy's ration is one pound per person per month; France's, 1 1/2 pounds; England's, 2 pounds. Even these quantities are not always obtainable.

What the United States Food Administration is now asking of the people over here is to put themselves upon a ration of 2 pounds per person per month. This does not in any way limit the amount of syrups or honey that one may have.

So after all it's not very hard, is it? Certainly it is fair. Why should we who have gone into the struggle literally "for good" enjoy anything more than those who have been "holding" for three long years?

There is one thing which the American people must prove to be unnecessary, and that is the ration card system. This nation likes to do things because it likes to do them, not because it is forced to do them.

This "ration" has come in the form of a request. So it's a matter between you and your conscience. You are on your honor. Don't buy more than your share. Buy less if you are clever enough to manage with less.

Conviction to Vote on Exile Question.

A decision rendered by Charles E. Nichols, of Schenectady, the town of Chenango will hold a special town meeting September 20 to vote on the local option question.

The election held last November the town voted dry. The decision granting another election is on the grounds that the soldiers did not vote on the question, several towns in this state that voted dry in November will also hold another election by order of Judge Nichols. It was said that he would apply for an order to hold another election on the same question.

Games And Physical Efficiency.

Boys and girls have been urged to play certain games as a means of developing the physical efficiency necessary if they are to pass the National Baize Tests that are a part of the progress for Patriotic Play Week, held under the auspices of the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Dept. of Labor and the Child Welfare Dept. of the Woman's Committee.

The organization of such games and of the badge tests is the simplest part of play week program, and will, it is expected, be particularly valuable for communities where there is now no organization for promoting the safety and snail of the way children use their leisure time.

Many mothers and also members of committees organizing the work in the states have written to the Children's Bureau and to the Child Welfare Dept. for information as to what games are especially useful for developing particular muscular abilities. In response to these inquiries it was announced today that descriptions of twelve games are available prepared by the playground and recreation association of America, 1 Madison Ave., N. Y., from which copies can be secured. These games include old familiar ones like tag, tug of war, prisoner's base, up Jenkins, run, sheep run, and volleyball. They have been selected because of their usefulness in developing alertness, team play and physical correctness. The descriptions have been prepared with special reference to the usefulness of the games in the patriotic play week, and the old games have been enlivened by new stunts. Recreation committees which have been unable to find play organizations ready to hand can easily get the boys and girls in any community interested in starting games in summer in fitting themselves for taking games tests at the end of the vacation time. Their summer of healthy play will, it is hoped, leave them better able to get the most out of the winter of study that is before them.

THE MAVERICK COLONY.

Its Residents and Sidelights on Its Newest Festival.

The Maverick Colony near Woodstock, ever true to its name, has an entirely different character this year to any of those gone before.

Beginning as it did, six years ago with a company of Belgian musicians it has gone through the stages of Russian dancers, Dalcroze School and promiscuous artists until now it has settled down for a season at least of writers, professors and actors. While not yet highbrow it is on the road, the name and traditions of the place will however show a turning.

This year the annual festival will take character from the profession of the residents.

Robert Edson known for the last twenty years as one of the idols of the American stage, creator of the title role of "The Little Minister," long ago when both he and Maude Adams were young to the stage, has lately returned from taking part in the great war present in St. Louis, known as "The Drawing of the Sword."

Full of the enthusiasm of this great spectacle, he generously offered to produce something similar for the Stone Quarry Theatre on the evening of August 22, which is the full moon festival of August for all Woodstock and the adjacent neighborhoods and districts.

Of course the spirit of the Maverick had to get under the skin of Mr. Edson too, and soon he was induced to take the part of the Kaiser and furnish the contrasting burlesque to the heroic pageant which Woodstock artists seem to think necessary for their folk.

Groups have been organized and costumes are being made to represent the history and tradition of our Allies.

Bardolphe has taken England, Zena has France, Shady has Poland, Dearville has Serbia, Kingston has Romania and Woodstock village is in a revolution over Russia, that promises to rival the mother effort itself.

The plot of the pageant is a night-mare from William Shakespeare, by name some potted lobster sent long ago by Pauline Diderot. The part of the lobster is to be taken by the landscape painter, William D. Schuchman, and so great are Mr. Schuchman's historic capacities that Mr. Edson is a part grand champion of the night-mare and a supreme representative for nearly twenty years.
